

The Road to Revolution

Event	What happened?	Why did they do this?	What was the response to this event?
Proclamation of 1763	It prohibited Anglo-American colonists from settling on lands acquired from the French following the French and Indian War.	intended to conciliate the Native Americans by checking the encroachment of settlers on their lands.	Colonists rebelled against this law because they thought it was a plot to keep them under the strict control of England and that the British only wanted them east of the mountains so they could keep an eye on them.
Quartering Act 1765	It required colonial authorities to provide food, drink, quarters, fuel, and transportation to British forces stationed in their towns or villages.	It was to house soldiers from England in response to the French and Indian War.	American colonists resented and opposed the Quartering Act of 1765, not because it meant they had to house British soldiers in their homes, but because they were being taxed to pay for provisions and barracks for the army.
Stamp Act 1765	It imposed a tax on all papers and official documents in the American colonies.	To help the British pay for the French and Indian war.	American colonists responded to Parliament's acts with organized protest. Throughout the colonies, a network of secret organizations known as the Sons of Liberty was created, aimed at intimidating the stamp agents who collected Parliament's taxes.
Townshend Act 1767	It initiated taxes on glass, lead, paint, paper, and tea.	To help the British pay the expenses involved in governing the American colonies.	Riotous protest of the Townshend Acts in the colonies often invoked the phrase no taxation without representation. Colonists eventually decided not to import British goods until the act was repealed and to boycott any goods that were imported in violation of their non-importation agreement.
Boston Massacre 1770	A crowd confronted eight British soldiers in the streets of the city. As the mob insulted and threatened them, the soldiers fired their muskets, killing five colonists.	Colonists did this to protest against the taxes.	The incident fueled the anger of colonists like Samuel Adams and Paul Revere. They used the massacre as propaganda, recreating a Henry Pelham painting and distributing copies all over the Boston area in order to incite the public. Revere in such a way as to cast the British in a more negative light.
Boston Tea Party 1773	342 chests of tea belonging to the British East India Company were thrown from ships into Boston Harbor by American patriots disguised as Mohawk Indians.	The colonists were frustrated and angry at Britain for imposing "taxation without representation."	The British shut down Boston Harbor until all of the 340 chests of British East India Company tea were paid for. This was implemented under the 1774 Intolerable Acts and known as the Boston Port Act.
