Servamus, 2006 Crime, Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa Heng Choon (Oliver) Chan, Samuel Adjorlolo, 2021-08-26 This book aims to serve as a comprehensive resource for a myriad of crime and mental health topics and issues in the African criminal justice system from a psycho criminological perspective Crime Mental Health and the Criminal Justice System in Africa A Psycho Criminological Perspective is an ideal primary text for courses in criminology criminal justice and forensic psychology as well as asource of reference for practitioners who deal with offenders or victims For a long time African historiography has been viewed and interpreted from Eurocentric perspectives This book is a timely contribution towards infusing Afrocentric perspectives in African scholarship by indigenous scholars The authors interdisciplinary topical approach covering a gamut of topics ranging from African criminology through mental health and psychology to criminal justice systems has lent a decolonizing voice toward African literary pursuit and thereby laid a solid foundation for further research by other scholars I highly recommend it to readers academic institutions and researchers on Africa Emmanuel Onyeozili Ph D Professor of Criminology and Criminal Justice Department of Criminal Justice University of Maryland Eastern Shore USA This edited volume by an array of experts from West and Southern Africa has given a refreshing voice to psycho criminological narratives in the continent In a region of the world in which there is insufficient documentation of the patterns determinants and outcomes of criminal behaviour this book offers a culturally competent and contemporary flavour to an ancient discourse Its focus on new areas of concern such as online dating scams kidnapping and the mental health of officials in the criminal justice system compellingly captures the potential reader and gives good value for time It is warmly recommended for its breadth of coverage the authority of its claims and the multi disciplinary outlook of its authors Adegboyega Ogunwale MBBS FWACP Consultant Psychiatrist Forensic Unit Neuropsychiatric Hospital Aro Ogun State Nigeria This collection represents a significant step in the study of mental health crime and criminal justice in sub Saharan Africa The breadth of topics covered is impressive with each contribution based on methodologically sound empirical analyses It deserves to become a key reference for students researchers and policy makers interested in suicide drug use violence the work of prison officers criminal investigations and police community interactions Justice Tankebe Ph D Lecturer Institute of Criminology University of Cambridge UK Mental health and criminal justice issues are growing problems facing the world today Questions about whether mental health affects crime or whether involvement in the criminal justice system affects an individual s health have become part of national policy discussion This nicely written book brings together eminent scholars and experts with extensive experience in their various fields to address these and other questions related to crime mental health and criminal justice in Africa The editors did well to coordinate the efforts of the contributors into a valuable pierce I highly recommend it for all who are interested in the nexus between crime mental health and criminal justice systems Francis D Boateng Ph D Assistant Professor Department of Criminal Justice and Legal Studies University of

Mississippi USA Psychology and Law Colin Tredoux, 2005 The congruencies between psychology and law are explored in this collection of learning objectives exercises and reference material that addresses the intersection of these two disciplines In addition to practical topics such as crime and policing the detection of deception and truthfulness dangerousness and the risk of violence and the employment of the psychologist as expert witness it also discusses modern moral issues such as the role and treatment of child witnesses in legal proceedings investigative psychology and psychological profiling and the use of insanity and diminished capacity defenses Police Reserves and Volunteers James F. Albrecht, 2017-04-21 Reductions in police department funding have raised the importance of volunteers in enhancing organizational performance improving community trust and confidence and at times accomplishing basic tasks to maintain public safety and security During a period when police administrators are asked to do more with less and to engage in smarter community oriented policing citizen volunteers are an invaluable resource Police Reserves and Volunteers is an invaluable primer for those looking to understand the benefits and challenges involved in the use of the volunteers within global law enforcement agencies Using cases from a range of specialists and precincts this edited volume provides a rare window into police administration from the state legislation that regulates police reserves in California to the local models observed in many counties and cities across the United States Police Reserves and Volunteers offers volunteers local elected officials and law enforcement straightforward guidelines to enhance police goals and build public trust in local communities South Africa Yearbook, 2002 Why We Kill Karl Kemp, 2024-03-02 Why do so many South Africans prefer taking the law into their own hands to relying on the police Why are those who do so often cheered or sympathised with Of the unprecedented 27 000 recorded murders in South Africa in 2022 at least 1 894 or 7 per cent were attributed to mob justice and vigilantism more than double the number from five years before In the first nine months of 2023 a further 1 472 mob justice deaths had already been registered Mob justice is nothing new but in recent years it has taken on an undeniably desperate furious edge From the breathtakingly violent Zandspruit massacre in May 2021 to the killings during the July unrest two months later to the march of Operation Dudula across the nation in 2022 vigilantism and the condoning of it has never before captured the zeitgeist of South Africa so sharply What has changed in the past few years and what does it augur for the future Following three recent cases of mob justice from the hellish metropolitan townships of Gauteng to the far flung bushveld of northern Limpopo and drawing on extensive research and interviews Why We Kill explores the roots realities and consequences of South Africa's current crisis of vigilantism Women's Experiences with HIV/AIDS Lynellyn Long, E. M. Ankrah, 1996 Contributors discuss the differences between women within and across cultures and how local attitudes and traditions can affect the prevention of or vulnerability to HIV AIDS The Second Women's Budget Debbie Budlender, 1997 This series published by the Institute for Democracy in South Africa IDASA is the first serious local attempt to examine the gender impact of key aspects of the budget in that country The series does not describe a separate budget for women rather it is an examination of all programmes policies and allocated funds in the national budget of the country for their impact on women Each book analyses the budget votes of the different government bodies and ministries The series serve as essential reading for anyone interested in the transformation of South African society and the understanding it offers of budget processes can be applied to similar deliberations in societies within Africa and around the world
