Innovative Teaching and Learning Methods in Educational Systems Endah Retnowati, Suprpto, Mohammad Jerusalem, Kristian Sugiyarto, Wagiran, 2019-11-11 This proceedings volume of InCoTEPD 2018 covers many ideas for handling a wide variety of challenging issues in the field of education. The outstanding ideas dealing with these issues result in innovation of the system. There are many innovation strategies resulting from recent research that are discussed in this book. These strategies will become the best starting points to solve current and future problems. This book provides an in depth coverage of educational innovation developments with an emphasis on educational systems formal or informal education strategies learning models and professional teachers. Indeed those developments are very important to be explored for obtaining the right way of problem solving. Providing many ideas from the theoretical foundation into the practice this book is versatile and well organized for an appropriate audience in the field of education. It is an extremely useful reference for students teachers professors practitioners and government representatives in many countries. Using Computers in Qualitative Research Nigel G. Fielding Raymond M. Lee, 1991-04-30 This is a comprehensive assessment of recent developments in the use of computers in qualitative research an increasingly important and rapidly growing area of interest among social scientists and graduate students. Using Computers in Qualitative Research profiles and compares the principal programs available identifying their particular strengths and limitations. It outlines the sorts of research problems that existing and forthcoming software can and cannot handle. The contributors also draw on their experiences of teaching computer based techniques to suggest ways in which these could be incorporated into research methods training. Reprinted with updated information on computer resources 1992. Teaching and Learning with Digital Technologies in Higher Education Institutions in Africa Admire Mare, Erisher Woyo, Elina M. Amadhila, 2022-12-09 This book critically examines how the COVID 19 pandemic has stimulated digital innovation within higher education using case studies from Africa. Imagining a future for post pandemic higher education it analyses the challenges and opportunities of remote teaching and learning. The book explores the structural barriers around access to higher education and how these were reconfigured and amplified by technology dependent teaching and learning. Case studies from countries across Africa provide unique insights into the challenges experienced by Higher Education Institutions HEIs during the COVID 19 pandemic examining examples of emergent pedagogies such as online mobile and social media enhanced teaching and blended learning. The chapters consider online assessment and teacher professional development critically examining some of the benefits and structural challenges of digital technology integration in the context of pre existing education disparities such as students and teachers living in poverty stricken and highly unequal societies. Offering invaluable insights into higher education in Africa the book will be essential reading for researchers scholars and students in the fields of higher education study digital education and educational technology and African and comparative education. It will also be of interest to higher education managers and
