Minority Protection EU Accession Monitoring Program,2003 Monitoring the EU Accession Process Open Society Institute (OSI). EU Accession Monitoring Program,2002 Minority Protection in Latvia Monitoring the EU Accession Process EU Accession Monitoring Program,Open Society Institute (Budapest, Hungary),2002 Eumpa has published monitoring reports highlighting specific areas in which state performance conforms to or fails short of broadly accepted international standards These two volumes monitor access to education and employment for people with intellectual disabilities in 15 European countries and make recommendations on how people with intellectual disabilities can be more fully integrated into community life The summary report is a condense version of the two full volumes Law and Governance in an Enlarged European Union George A. Bermann,Katharina Pistor,2004-11-10 This book s principal aim is to critically address the institutional and substantive legal issues resulting from European enlargement Questioning EU Enlargement Helene Sjurssen,2007-01-24 This new book takes a unique approach to the study of European enlargement tackling key questions What kind of understanding of the EU do the enlargement processes speak to Do decisions to enlarge mainly suggest that the EU is a free market focusing on potential economic gains Do they indicate that there is a sense of common European identity Or is the focus primarily on securing respect for democratic principles and human rights Offering up to date studies of the EU enlargement processes and country specific in depth analyses Questioning EU Enlargement will be a valuable resource for students and scholars of European studies international relations and politics The Impact of Expansion on European Union Institutions E. Heidbreder,2011-04-11 How does policy making trigger the institutionalization of steering capacities This book investigates this question by tackling why the European Commission expanded competences that were intentionally limited to the specific pre accession context prior the 2004 07 EU enlargement The European Union and Human Rights Jan Wouters,Manfred Nowak,Anna-Luise Chané,Nicolas Hachez,2020 This is volume on the EU and human rights is based primarily on the findings of the FP7 FRAME project Carried out by a consortium of universities and research centres FRAME intended to provide an interdisciplinary knowledge base on EU human rights policies and their impact producing atleast 50 reports for the Commission Human Rights in Europe Malte Brosig,2006 The book represents an insight into current human rights developments in Europe and gives an overview of the complex juridical and political dimensions The contemporary development and institutionalisation of European human rights norms takes place within the structures of the European Union OSCE Council of Europe and a multilayered court system Chapter II European Organisations and Human Rights delivers an up to date introduction into the organisation s different approaches to human rights Geographically the volume has a strong focus on human rights developments in Central Eastern and South Eastern Europe Russia and Turkey are challenging cases for European human rights organisations and are dealt with in separate articles The issue of minority rights protection forms another challenge for many Central and Eastern European Countries The protection of Roma people is only one pressing example Finally the book devotes a whole chapter to the EU s external relations and human rights The volume closes with a chapter written by David Chandler who reminds us of the limits of the human rights conception Seeking Kant in the EU's Relations with Turkey Senem Aydın Düzgit,2006

International Influence Beyond Conditionality Rachel A. Epstein,Ulrich Sedelmeier,2013-09-13 The European Union s EU membership conditionality has been perceived as a highly effective means of influence on non member states in the run up to the 2004 and 2007 enlargements According to the incentive based explanation that dominates the literature conditionality has been particularly effective when the EU offered a credible membership incentive and when governments did not consider the domestic costs of compliance threatening to their hold on power This volume challenges much of the existing work on EU enlargement and postcommunist transition however by testing the conditionality thesis in the post accession setting Whereas a conditionality hypothesis would predict deteriorating compliance among the newest member states several contributions here actually find the opposite Enduring compliance among postcommunist states with the acquis as well as with less formally institutionalized EU preferences for economic liberalization and minority protection calls into question the role that conditionality plays in eliciting conformity Simultaneously support for the conditionality hypothesis in areas such as political party development and EU relations with Turkey and the western Balkans suggests conditionality s effects vary across countries and issues As the first study to systematically examine the relationship between international institutions and postcommunist states after enlargement this volume provides new insights into how external actors exercise their power in domestic politics This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of European Public Policy The Handbook of Political Change in Eastern Europe Sten Berglund,Joakim Ekman, Frank H. Aarebrot,2004 This thoroughly revised and updated edition of The Handbook of Political Change in Eastern Europe provides an authoritative and thorough analysis of the political changes which have occurred in Central and Eastern Europe since the demise of communism It offers an historical comparative perspective of the region and focuses on the social consequences of the democratization process throughout the 1990s and the early years of the 21st century Significantly this new edition includes an examination of the South East European countries of Croatia Serbia and Moldova which are often overlooked in studies on post communist political development The country specific chapters are each written by distinguished scholars with particular expertise in their respective cases Estonia Latvia Lithuania Poland the Czech Republic Slovakia Hungary Slovenia Romania Bulgaria Croatia Serbia and Moldova Each chapter includes detailed examinations of elections the formation of governments electoral systems and constitutional arrangements These up to date analyses are supplemented by conclusions on the party systems and emerging political structures in the region as a whole and the consolidation of democracy in a post communist setting The revised and expanded version of The Handbook of Political Change in Eastern Europe provides a state of the art companion which will be indispensable for students and scholars in the social sciences including political science comparative politics European studies and political history

Political Rights Under Stress in 21st Century Europe
Wojciech Sadurski, 2006 Examining the uncertainty of the role and scope of traditional political rights in the 21st century's threat of terrorism this book reflects on the appropriate scope and strength of protection of political rights and analyses issues such as party closures political rights of minorities and democratization

Nation-building, Ethnicity and Language Politics in Transition Countries
Farimah Daftary, François Grin, 2003 Takes stock of the experience of the countries concerned in dealing with linguistic diversity The emphasis is on the interplay between the politics of language and the development of language legislation codifying the respective status of different languages Nine case studies ranging from the high visibility cases of the Baltic States to much less known language policy developments in Armenia or Tatarstan provide in depth analyses illustrating the remarkable range of language politics in times of change The case of a stateless people the Roma and the politicization of the debate on the standardization of Romanes are also discussed A joint venture with the European Centre for Minority Issues Flensburg Germany
