Red Alert Intrigue Nations Capital

Edward Hunter

Red Alert Intrigue Nations Capital:

Red Alert Paul Kight, David Kight, 2017-03 Stuart Preston Digit III's world was about to topple over. He had been kidnapped, drugged, shoved around, kicked, held at gunpoint, and dragged around D.C. with multiple psychos doing their best to get their hands on him and the information he had hidden in a locker in Union Station. How did a lowly intern for the senate majority leader in the most liberal government ever elected wind up in the middle of political intrigue? Fortunately, Stu was not alone. The moment he disappeared, thirty-year veteran of international espionage Marion Morrison, leader of the clandestine Liberty League, and his top operatives snapped into action to rescue him. It would require skill, determination, and courage, as well as the one thing no intern ever figures he would need: air support. But finding Stu was not going to be easy, and the longer they hovered inside the Air Defense Identification Zone, the more likely their flight would end with a Sidewinder missile blowing them out of the sky. Will they be able to reach Stu in time to prevent a Constitutional crisis?

Red Alert Paul Kight, David Wayne Kight, 2015-11-25 ATLAS DIDN'T SHRUG BUT HIS NOSE ITCHED and Stuart Preston Digit III's world was about to topple over. He had been kidnapped, drugged, shoved around, kicked, threatened, held at gunpoint, and dragged around D.C. with multiple psychos doing their best to get their hands on him and the information he had hidden in a locker in Union Station. How did an intern for the senate majority leader in the most liberal government ever elected wind up in the middle of political intrigue? Mere days before he was a normal senate intern working diligently to have a good addition to his résumé. How could he have known that his boss would use him as a political pawn to seize an entire industry under control of the federal government? Unbeknownst to Stu, his name and personal information were broadcast to the media as the spokesman for a watchdog group that didn't actually exist. Then an impromptu speech before a throng of admiring protesters on the National Mall and on every news outlet made him an instant star. But not everyone was in his fan club, including even himself. He knew he had been duped, but now he was in too deep. While millions of followers who called themselves Stupies were tweeting back and forth and scrawling Where's Stu Digit graffiti all over town, he went under the radar to try to set the record straight and started a spiral of events that would embroil him in unexpected intrigue and mystery as his political foes jockeyed to reel him in. Strangers appeared out of nowhere to use him for their own advantage. Before he knew it, he was the unwilling companion of a dangerous agent, Louisa Marner, who was intent on delivering him and his information to her high-powered employer. Marner had skillfully stolen Stu from the sociopathic former spy Barton Gutman, who was not happy about losing his prize to the competition. Stu's brain fogged with truth serum; he had to use his wits, what little he possessed, to attempt to escape, trying his best to channel his TV hero Mitchell Weldon from his favorite show, The Spy Who Got Fired. All the while, Stu's fate was intertwined with the fate of an entire industry. In fact, individual liberty was at stake if he wound up in the wrong hands. And to Stu, something he dearly loved was in peril. Fortunately, Stu was not alone. The moment he disappeared, thirty-year veteran of international espionage Marion Morrison, leader of the clandestine Liberty League and his lead operatives Justine Danaher and Phil Gilhooley snapped into action to rescue him It would require skill determination and courage as well as the one thing no intern ever figures he would need air support With his helicopter crammed with electronic counter measure technology Morrison dared to fly into the most protected airspace in America With Phil in the back of the chopper tracking Stu and Justine in her over powered pick up truck giving chase the game was on But finding Stu was not going to be easy and the longer they stayed inside the Air Defense Identification Zone the better the chances that their flight would end with a Sidewinder missile blowing them out of the sky Will they be able to reach Stu before one of his pursuers manages to claim him for their evil purpose Red Alert is a page turner from beginning to end and will have you jeering cheering smiling and laughing WARNING Reading this book may cause liberals to become apoplectic Red Alert! Stuart J.
