Reflections in a Serpent's Eye Micaela Janan,2009-10-22 Ovid's extraordinary story of Thebes founding and bloody unravelling spans two books of his epic poem the Metamorphoses His bizarre refractions of the well ordered community engage Ovid's own Rome and the mythohistory of the Eternal City's origins most particularly as framed in Vergil's Aeneid Vergil's poem attained nonpareil status as the Latin epic soon after publication The Aeneid has regularly been read as persuasively formulating how and why Rome will stride forward into history into manifest destiny and into empire without end The Metamorphoses strangely fantastical surface reflects what is already inherently perverse in that master narrative disclosing the narrative's internal contradictions Ovid rigorously and sceptically not only interrogates the existing Roman political order claimed as lasting truth but also the very possibility of organizing any polity into a harmonious organically unified lasting institution The Index ... Benjamin Franklin Underwood,1886 Modern Physical Fatalism and the Doctrine of Evolution Thomas Rawson Birks,1882 Unitas ,1969 The Philosophy of Hegel Walter Terence Stace,1924

The Index ,1886 Reflections in Glass Peter Archbishop. Carnley,2011-01-01 I certainly am not going to be bullied by fundamentalist Christians Archbishop Peter Carnley throughout his career as Archbishop of Perth Peter Carnley has raised issues that have challenged Christians including those of his own Church and have sometimes exposed the faultlines of ideological and theological division within the Church Reflections in Glass is a candid exploration of these key ideological issues facing Anglicanism in Australia Peter Carnley explores areas such as progressive orthodoxy whether it is possible to be Anglican and fundamentalist the value of diversity in Church experience the reasonableness of Sydney Anglicanism lay presidency at the Eucharist and women bishops and liberalism With this book Peter Carnley is guaranteed to once again set the public agenda for the Anglican Church in Australia Postcolonial Custodianship Filippo Menozzi,2014-02-05 This book engages with current developments in postcolonial research exploring notions of cultural transmission tradition and modernity authenticity cross cultural aesthetics and postcolonial ethics The author considers the ethical responsibility of the postcolonial intellectual enhancing our understanding of this topic through the concept of custodianship which may be defined as a responsibility towards the other in forms of cultural and literary inheritance The author introduces custodianship as a central theme and a vital question for the committed intellectual today proposing original interpretations of major postcolonial texts by key figures including Anita Desai Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Mahasweta Devi and Arundhati Roy Through close reading and historical analysis Postcolonial Custodianship reveals that a practice of custodianship has always been an essential element of these writers ethical engagement yet in a way that has never been explored The author contends that the question of custodianship should not be seen as a merely negative designation it is by redefining the very meaning of custodianship that the ethical dimension of postcolonialism can be rediscovered Reflections and Connections
