Racism And Antiracism In Real Schools:

Racism and Antiracism in Real Schools David Gillborn,1995 This text focuses on racism in the policy research theory and practice of education It includes a study of anti racism at the level of whole school management and classroom practice The words of teachers and students are included to bring the issues to life Racism and Antiracism in Real Schools David Gillborn,1995-02-16 How are race and racism implicated in education policy and practice What does effective antiracism look like in practice How can teachers and school students be encouraged to think critically about their racialized assumptions and actions In exploring these questions David Gillborn makes a vital contribution to the debate on race and racism in education He focuses on racism in the policy research theory and practice of education and includes the first major study of antiracism at the level of whole school management and classroom practice The voices of teachers and school students bring the issues to life and illustrate the daily problems of life in urban schools This is a fascinating picture of the key matters facing managers classroom teachers and their students as schools struggle to develop strong and workable approaches to anti racist education It is accompanied by a critical review of current debates and controversies concerning race ethnicity and identity Arguing for a critical return to the concept of race Racism and Antiracism in Real Schools represents an important addition to the literature on the theory and practice of education in a racist society Foundations of Critical Race Theory in Education Edward Taylor,David Gillborn,Gloria Ladson-Billings,2023-01-30 Critical Race Theory CRT is at the forefront of contemporary discussions about racism and race inequity in education and politics internationally The emergence of CRT marked a pivotal moment in the history of racial politics within the academy and powerfully influenced the broader conversation about race and racism in the United States and beyond Comprised of articles by some of the most prominent scholars in the field this groundbreaking anthology is the first to pull together both the foundational writings and more recent scholarship on the cultural and racial politics of schooling The collection offers a variety of critical perspectives on race analysing the causes consequences and manifestations of race racism and inequity in schooling Unique to this updated edition is a variety of contributions by key CRT scholars published within the last five years including an all new section addressing the war on CRT that followed the murder of George Floyd and international protests in support of BlackLivesMatter Each section concludes with a set of questions and discussion points to further engage with the issues discussed in the readings This revised edition of a landmark publication documents the progress of the CRT movement and acts to further spur developments in education policy critical pedagogy and social justice making it a crucial resource for students and educators alike Leading Socially Just Schools Christine Forde,Deirdre Torrance,2023-08-22 Equity and social justice have become central to the work of schools Teachers and leaders are at the forefront of building socially just schools Issues related to equity and social justice in education however are complex and deeply contested Professional learning is critical to enable teachers and school leaders to develop the understandings skills and confidence to grapple with often challenging issues This book brings together a range of contributions from different systems The contributors to this book explore ways in which professional learning can support efforts to bring about socially just schools The authors adopt a variety of perspectives with some looking at professional learning around a broad concept of social justice and the task of the gap between advantaged and disadvantaged learners Other contributors explore the question of professional learning in relation to a specific issue or area of practice to raise awareness and deepen knowledge and skills Barring one all the chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue in the journal Professional Development in Education

The RoutledgeFalmer Reader in Multicultural Education David Gillborn, Gloria Ladson-Billings, 2004 Bringing together scholarship from both sides of the Atlantic this book focuses on the questions that shape the field of multicultural education offering the reader an opportunity to achieve a real grasp of the subject Inclusive Schools, Inclusive Society Race On The Agenda, 1999 This book is a manual for planning and taking action against racism in schools Its implementation will improve schooling for all children not just those from ethnic minority groups It clearly sets out the issues the statistics and the research that show which groups are failed by schools and why and then moves to a range of solutions It is compiled by leading United Kingdom experts in the field of education and race who have consulted widely and is certainly one of the most authoritative books available on the subject It is designed to be photocopied Race, Ethnicity, and Education: Racism and Antiracism in Education E. Wayne Ross, Valerie Ooka Pang, 2006 Crash Politics and Antiracism Philip S. S. Howard, George Jerry Sefa Dei, 2008 Counterpoints publishes the most compelling and imaginative books being written in education today Grounded on the theoretical advances in criticalism feminism and postmodernism in the last two decades of the twentieth century Counterpoints engages the meaning of these innovations in various forms of educational expression Committed to the proposition that theoretical literature should be accessible to a variety of audiences the series insists that its authors avoid esoteric and jargonistic languages that transform educational scholarship into an elite discourse for the initiated Resources in Education ,1997 Curriculum and the Teacher Nigel Norris, 2014-06-03 Bringing together seminal papers from the Cambridge Journal of Education around the theme of curriculum and the teacher this book explores the changing conceptions of curriculum and teaching and the changing role of the teacher in curriculum development Inclusion and Diversity in Education: Developing inclusive schools and school systems Peter Hick, Gary Thomas, 2009 This 4 volume set brings together seminal articles and key writings on the theme of inclusion and diversity in education The collection takes disability and special educational need as a starting point from which to develop a broader focus on a range of themes relating to learners who may be marginalised from educational opportunities This includes for example members of minority ethnic communities students excluded from schools or who are looked after in public care and other dimensions of exclusion arising from social class gender or sexuality The starting point for understanding inclusive education lies in social justice perspectives and this forms the basis for the first volume Volumes two and three focus on research aimed at developing more inclusive practices both at the levels of schools and school systems and at the levels of inclusive pedagogy enacted in the classroom and through the curriculum Volume four reflects the range of voices in research on inclusive education drawing on traditionally marginalised voices and those of learners in particular Three cross cutting themes are represented across all four volumes a chronological approach showing how key concepts and perspectives have developed in each area of the literature identified groups of learners developing more nuanced readings of how processes of exclusion and inclusion intersect dimensions such as disability class and race and contexts for learning such as urban education and global or comparative perspectives

Education Africa Forum Karin Fieldgate, Jane Hofmeyr, Helene Perold, 2001

Recent Research on the Achievements of Ethnic Minority Pupils David Gillborn, C. V. Gipps, 1996 OFSTED has commissioned a limited number of brief but authoritative reviews of research aimed principally to support teachers and those training to be teachers This review concentrates on the achievement of ethnic minorities It argues that since the mid 1980s issues of race and equal opportunity have tended to slip from policy agendas and that this should be reversed It focuses on differences in levels of achievement between different ethnic groups and factors such as social class and gender are also addressed as influencing factors to achievement
