Rethinking Normalcy Rethinking Normalcy:

Rethinking Normalcy Rod Michalko, Tanya Titchkosky, 2009 The chapters in this book exemplify ways of questioning our collective relations to normalcy as such relations affect the lives of both disabled and currently non disabled people Pub desc

Architectures of Emergency in Turkey Eray Çaylı, Pinar Aykac, Sevcan Ercan, 2021-10-21 Challenging existing political analyses of the state of emergency in Turkey this volume argues that such states are not merely predetermined by policy and legislation but are produced regulated distributed and contested through the built environment in both embodied and symbolic ways Contributors use empirical critical spatial research carried out in Turkey over the past decade exploring heritage displacement and catastrophes Contributing to the broader literature on the related concepts of exception risk crisis and uncertainty the book discusses the ways in which these phenomena shape and are shaped by the built environment and provides context specific empirical substance to it by focusing on contemporary Turkey In so doing it offers nuanced insight into the debate around emergency as well as into recent urban architectural affairs in Turkey

Science and Other Cultures Sandra Harding, Robert Figueroa, 2013-10-31 In this pioneering new book Sandra Harding and Robert Figueroa bring together an important collection of original essays by leading philosophers exploring an extensive range of diversity issues for the philosophy of science and technology The essays gathered in this volume extend current philosophical discussion of science and technology beyond the standard feminist and gender analyses that have flourished over the past two decades by bringing a thorough and truly diverse set of cultural racial and ethical concerns to bear on questioning in these areas Science and Other Cultures charts important new directions in ongoing discussions of science and technology and makes a significant contribution to both scholarly and teaching resources available in the field

Women's Health Advocacy Jamie White-Farnham, Bryna Siegel Finer, Cathryn Molloy, 2019-07-17 Women s Health Advocacy brings together academic studies and personal narratives to demonstrate how women use a variety of arguments forms of writing and communication strategies to effect change in a health system that is not only often difficult to participate in but which can be actively harmful It explicates the concept of rhetorical ingenuity the creation of rhetorical means for specific and technical yet extremely personal situations At a time when women s health concerns are at the center of national debate this rhetorical ingenuity provides means for women to uncover latent sources of oppression in women s health and medicine and to influence matters of research funding policy and everyday access to healthcare in the face of exclusion and disenfranchisement This accessible collection will be inspiring reading for academics and students in health communication medical humanities and women s studies as well as for activists patients and professionals

Working towards Equity Dustin Galer, 2018-05-04 In Working towards Equity Dustin Galer argues that paid work significantly shaped the experience of disability during the late twentieth century Using a critical analysis of disability in archival records personal collections government publications and a series of interviews Galer demonstrates how demands for greater access among disabled people for paid employment stimulated the development of a new discourse of disability in Canada Family advocates helped people living in institutions move out into the community as rehabilitation professionals played an increasingly critical role in the lives of working age adults with disabilities Meanwhile civil rights activists crafted a new consumer led vision of social and economic integration Employment was and remains a central component in disabled peoples efforts to become productive autonomous and financially secure members of Canadian society Working towards Equity offers new in depth analysis on rights activism as it relates to employment sheltered workshops deinstitutionalization and labour markets in the contemporary context in Canada The Hemingway Review ,2009 Rethinking Pull-out Services in Early Intervention R.
