Be My Baby

The Ronettes, a New York City trio made up of sisters Veronica and Estelle Bennett and a cousin, Nedra Talley, performed in many "Twist" clubs that sprang up in the early sixties. They made it to the famed Peppermint Lounge where they were "discovered" and signed a recording contract. Their recording of this song became one of the best sellers of 1963 in the United States and Europe. Be My Baby had had renewed popularity in the past year, having been included in the soundtrack of the Oscar-nominated movie Dirty Dancing.

Dixon and Godrich s Blues and Gospel Records has been dubbed the bible for collectors of pre war African American music It provides an exhaustive listing of all recordings made up to the end of 1943 in a distinctively African American musical style excluding those customarily classed as jazz which are the subject of separate discographies The book covers recordings made for the commercial market whether issued at the time or not and also recordings made for the Library of Congress Archive of Folk Song and similar bodies about 20 000 titles in all by more than 3 000 artists For each recording session full details are given of artist credit accompaniment place and date of recording titles issuing company and catalogue numbers matrix numbers and alternate takes There are also short accounts of the major race labels which recorded blues and gospel material and a complete list of field trips to the south by travelling recording units Howard Rye has joined the original compilers for this thoroughly revised fourth edition The scope has been enlarged by the addition of about 150 new artists in addition to newly discovered recordings by other artists Early cylinder recordings of gospel music from the 1890s are also included for the first time Previous editions of this work were applauded for their completeness accuracy and reliability This has now been enhanced by the addition of new information from record labels and from record company files and by listening to a
