Spina, 2017-02-28 This book investigates women's ritual authority and the common boundaries between religion and notions of gender ethnicity and identity Nanette R Spina situates her study within the transnational Melmaruvathur Adhiparasakthi movement established by the Tamil Indian guru Bangaru Adigalar One of the most prominent defining elements of this tradition is that women are privileged with positions of leadership and ritual authority This represents an extraordinary shift from orthodox tradition in which religious authority has been the exclusive domain of male Brahmin priests Presenting historical and contemporary perspectives on the transnational Adhiparasakthi organization Spina analyzes women's roles and means of expression within the tradition The book takes a close look at the Adhiparasakthi society in Toronto Canada a Hindu community in both its transnational and diasporic dimensions and how this Canadian temple has both shaped and demonstrated their own diasporic Hindu identity The Toronto Adhiparasakthi society illustrates how Goddess theology women's ritual authority and inclusivity ethics have dynamically shaped the identity of this prominent movement overseas Based on years of ethnographic fieldwork the volume draws the reader into the rich textures of culture community and ritual life with the Goddess
