Twentieth-Century Metapoetry and the Lyric Tradition Daniella Jancsó, 2019-02-19 Twentieth Century Metapoetry and the Lyric Tradition reveals the unique value of metapoems for exploring twentieth century poetry By placing these texts into a hitherto barely investigated literary historical perspective it demonstrates that modern metapoetry is steeped in the lyric tradition to a much greater extent than previously acknowledged Since these literary continuities that cut across epochal boundaries can be traced across all major poetic movements they challenge established accounts of the history of twentieth century poetry that postulate a radical break with the immediate past Moreover the finding that metapoems perpetuate traditional forms and topoi distinguishes metapoetry historically and systematically from metafiction and metadrama After highlighting the most important differences as regards to the function of metareference in poetry on the one side and in fiction and drama on the other the book concludes with a discussion of how to account for these generic differences theoretically With its extraordinarily subtle and perceptive Ronald Bush St John s College Oxford interpretive readings of over one hundred metapoems by canonical anglophone authors it offers the first representative selection of twentieth century poems about poetry in English

The Self and the Sonnet Rajan Barrett, 2010-09-13 The Self and the Sonnet is an interdisciplinary study which considers the sonnet a near eight hundred year old form and looks at the historical meanderings and the popularity of the form among cultures that are far removed from the location of its origin in Italy The book tracks the notion of the self from its Platonic beginnings to the Postmodern using insights from Charles Taylor Brian Morris and Calvin O Schrag so as to work out a model of the self Jan Pato ka s phenomenological notions of the self and Chaos Theory are important cohesive elements in the composition of this model A limit point in Mathematics is a point that is not in the set around which all the points cluster The book looks at the self from the limit points of the body mind world and language It analyzes sonnets which predominantly show a tendency to one of these limit points However it keeps in mind the other limit points as possibilities of a comprehensive analysis The motivation for this body of research comes primarily from the notion of the sonnet being a form that initially exists along with the epic as canonical writers of literary epics also write sonnets The historic and narrative moment of self in sonnet form calls for a questioning of both the self and the sonnet The book tries to address the questions What changes in the notion of self prompt the origin and persistence of the sonnet across cultures and Why and how is this form compatible with a self that is postmodern and global The Anglo American sonnet for the most is addressed but cultures and their attendant forms are also addressed when considering the sonnet The Arabic zajal the Persian ghazal the Chinese sonnet and the Korean Sijo sonnet are forms that are touched upon along with the Indian postcolonial versions like the forms of the sonnet in Modern Indian Languages such as Bangla Gujarati and Marathi
