My Most Memorable Trip

A Hannah

Funnily enough, the most memorable trip I ever made was a spur of the moment thing, after a night out with friends in Cambridge. It was the small hours of Saturday morning, about 2 a.m., and someone suggested we should go to Southwold, on the East Coast of England, to see the sunrise. It was summer, so the sun rises really early. I'd always wanted to see the sunrise on Southwold Beach, so I jumped at the chance. There were five of us and we all went. I didn't drive, but someone had a car, so we all piled in. It was a bit squashed and somebody fell asleep and snored. Anyway, there were no cars on the road at that time of night, and by 4 a.m., we'd arrived; no trouble parking either! It was a clear night and we all went down to the beach and waited. Then it got lighter and lighter and the sun came up slowly from behind the sea. It was out of this world. The trip lasted just a few hours and was totally unplanned, but it was perhaps all the more memorable for that reason.

After I finished school, and before I went to university, I decided to go travelling around Europe for a month. A couple of friends said they'd come too, so we booked all our train tickets, found cheap youth hostels to stay in and did loads of research on where to eat, what to see, where to go for entertainment, and so on. And of course, we had all the paraphernalia: rucksacks, walking boots, waterproofs; we even had a tent. It was going to be awesome. Then one of my travelling companions broke his leg really badly and had to pull out. It was devastating for him, of course, but also for us. We were now two. And then, to my shock, my other travelling companion had to pull out because of a family crisis - his grandmother was really ill, I think. I was so sorry for both of them, but although my parents really wanted me to cancel the whole trip, I decided to go on my own. It was with a fair bit of trepidation that I set off, but as soon as I got on the train, I met a group of people my age who were going to my first destination. It was Berlin, so it was half a day away, and by the time we got there, we were friends. We did loads together, but I also did a fair bit of sightseeing on my own, and then we set off in different directions. It wasn't all plain sailing. I lost my passport at one point (but got it back the following day) and I spent half my money in the first week, but it was a wonderful experience and I made friends that I still keep in touch with. In fact, I don't think it would have been so memorable if I hadn't been on my own.
