Although negative conditions exist, it appears that disabled children are not particularly stigmatized at the household level. Nevertheless, societal stigmatization and apathy do exist. As a result, disabled children are not being prepared to fully integrate into Jamaican society. 2 There is a range of variation of beliefs and behaviors with regard to disability and rehabilitation. The concept of intracultural diversity is supported. 3 This population has adapted their cultural belief systems and actual behaviors to match their material realities. That is, it would appear that people who have a disability and their caretakers have demonstrated contextual accommodation 4 Community based rehabilitation programs based on the primary health care and community participation principles enumerated by the WHO are theoretically sound and practically attainable in Jamaica Resources in Education, 1980 Serves as an index to Eric reports microform A Parent's Guide to Early Education Cooperative Educational Service Agency, Portage, Wis, 1976 The Political Economy of Global Citizenship Education Vanessa De Oliveira Andreotti, 2016-03-16 This edited collection offers analyses of global citizenship education within and across different national contexts This book illustrates the contingency of definitions the complexities of juxtaposing demands and priorities in different educational contexts and the difficulties and tensions of asking a question that is arguably one of the most pressing of our time how should we live together in interdependent ecologies in a finite planet In the discipline of education where market imperatives and the dictatorship of effective replicable results have laid siege to independent debates this book aims to emphasize the importance of raising our intellectual game as educators to interrupt new and old problematic patterns of engagements representations uncomplicated solutions and conceptual straightjackets Contributors to this volume address the tensions between homogenizing universalisms and parochial specificisms ethnocentrism and relativism deficit theorizations and romanticizations of difference fantasies of supremacy and paralyse in guilt the global and the local The chapters take different approaches to map the origins meanings workings ethics politics and implications of initiatives approaches and conceptual frameworks related to the ideas of globalization citizenship and education in different sites of knowledge production This book was originally published as a special issue of Globalisation Societies and Education World Yearbook of Education 1993 Peter Mittler, Ron Brouillette, Duncan Harris, 2019-08-08 First published in 2005 The goal of Education For All set by the United Nations at the 1990 Jomtien Thailand Conference and adopted by heads of state at the World Summit for Children in the same year confronts all of us with the fundamental challenge of including children with disabilities in the education system of all nations The aim of this book is to record analyse and celebrate positive signs of growth and development in the field of special needs education but with particular reference to children with significant disabilities The special education theme was selected for the 1993 edition of The World Yearbook of Education in synchrony with the ending of the UN Decade of Disabled Persons 1983 to 1992

Early Intervention Studies for Young Children with Special Needs David R. Mitchell, Roy Irwin Brown, 1991 This is the fourth volume in the Rehabilitation Education Series It is the first volume to be co edited and follows a volume on quality of life The first few years of a child's life sets the pattern for many issues associated with quality of life Although intervention may at later stages enhance quality of life it is in these first years that the attitudes and systems of society can have long lasting effects The early years are increasingly seen as the province of the educator and in children with disabilities special education They are already recognized as the province of the health professional Here we attempt to take a different line reinforcing the idea that child and family are the interacting system we serve The needs are often multidisciplinary but we need to recognize context as the critical marker Thus assessment needs to be linked to programmes and therefore programmes themselves have to be evaluated and environmental issues underlined In particular the contribution from those with sociological interests are noted Intervention whether it be psychological or educational is frequently and ideally placed in the hands of parents or the nearest caregiver The professional becomes the processor ever mindful of the context in which needs and goals are experienced These issues are basic to the issues of quality of life
